AMERICANS

the beautiful are celebrating the 200th anniversary of the American Revolution. Jackson Middle School, South Bend, Indiana, joins Americans everywhere in this bicentennial salute.

We recognize the importance of our country's history as it is reflected in our daily lives.

ADMINISTRATION

Education was scarce in early times, but it 1834 Horace Mann persuaded the Pennsylvania legislature to make schooling available to everyone.

Principal John Byers is aided by James Chambers and Everett Holmgren, assistant principals.

SCHOOL CAN BE FUN

Students of 200 years ago would be amazed to see all that happens in our schools today.

We read, write, sew, sing, cook, swim--and that's just a beginning. We also join many group activities such as band, orchestra, choir, newspaper, human relations, and yearbook.

SEVENTH HOUR BAND

EIGHTH HOUR BAND

MUSICIANS

Mr. Jay Miller has been tuning up the third hour orchestra this year.

The Jazz Band, directed by Mr. Willie Keyes, played in the high school "Sound-sations" concert in March.

Under the direction of Mr. Terry Dawson, nineteen members played in the fifth hour band.

COUNCIL, BANDS

At top is the Student Advisory Council sponsored by Mr. Lee Weldy and Mrs. Sylvia Kercher, and the second hour band, directed by Mr. Willie Keyes.

All the bands, including sixth hour (above) and first hour (left) worked on a variety of musical numbers, including modern and traditional tunes.

CHOIR

Choir members participated in the fall talent show, gave a Christmas concert, appeared on WSBT-TV, and performed in the bicentennial "Spirits of '76" at the Notre Dame ACC.

Above are early morning basses, left are early morning tenors, and below is fourth hour choir.

TALENTED PERFORMERS

Fifth hour glee club sang on television during the Christmas season, along with the early morning altos at left. Sue Laing, Ann Gyori, and Jeff Gentry were among the talented singers in the talent show.

ACTIVITIES

At left is a group representing the Human Relations Club, sponsored by Mr. Melvyn Smith.

Below are the early morning sopranos and the fourth hour orchestra, directed by Mrs. Pherbia Miller and Mr. Jay Miller, respectively.

YEARBOOK

At top and bottom are members of the yearbook staff working hard to meet their deadlines. In the middle is the yearbook staff. They met two or three times a week to arrange pictures and to write copy for the yearbook pages.

NEWSPAPER

Our newspaper staff produced an excellent paper this year, including a special red, white, and blue bicentennial edition of THE OLD HICKORY.

Mrs. Faye Nelson was the sponsor, and Craig Landis took pictures all year for the paper and yearbook. Mr. Dave Berta also helped with photos for both publications.

“BABES IN ARMS”

Mr. Dennis Perry, left, directed “Babes in Arms” for the spring musical production. Since Jackson has so many talented students, the play was double-cast.

Most of the cast is shown in these photos, with another 75 students performing in the chorus.

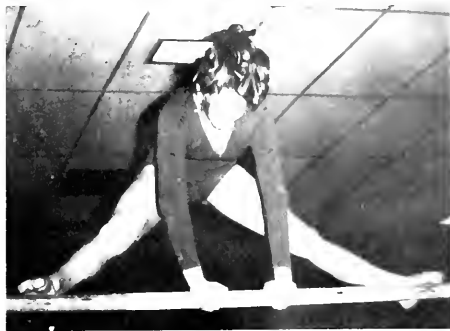

SNOW DAY!

Heavy snow and howling winter winds bring the most wonderful unexpected vacation of all--snow day! With school closed for the day, we played in the snow, talked on the phone for hours, and trudged to the Scottsdale Mall to meet friends or to go shopping.

S P O R T S

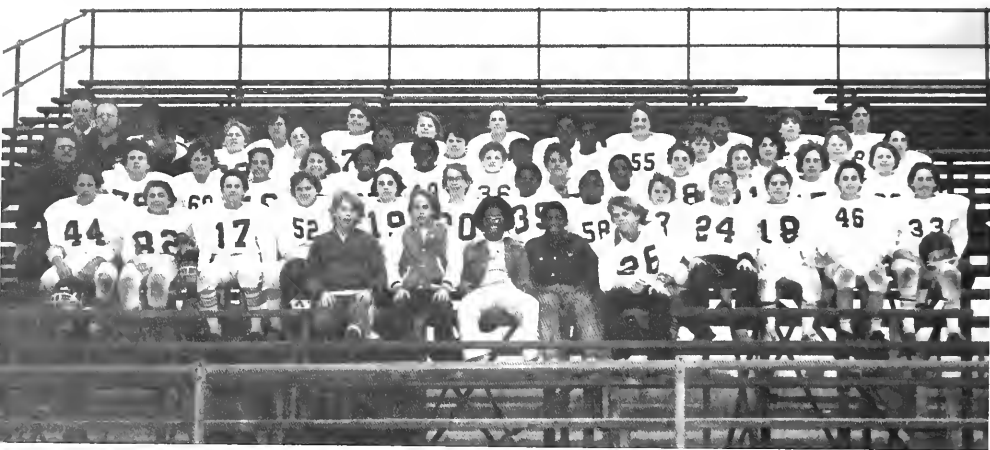

LOYAL SPIRIT

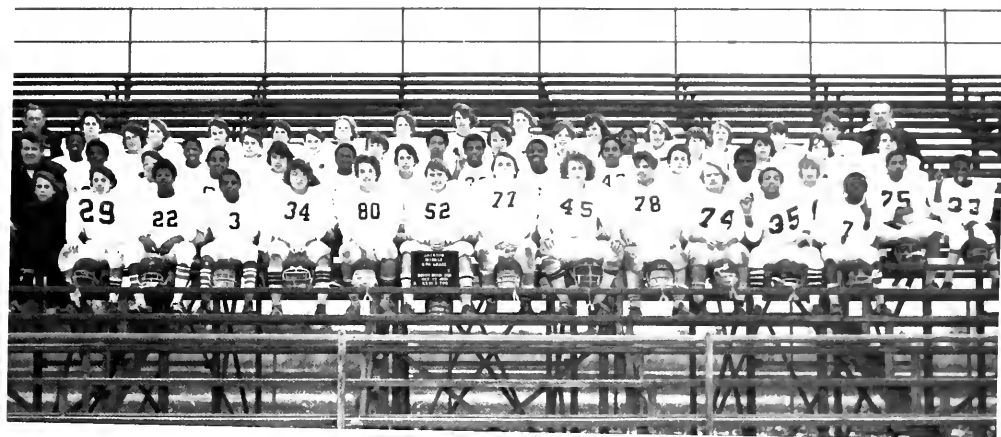

Athletics have always played an important part in American history. For centuries the challenge of competitive sports has brought people together in good fun and health, just as sports at Jackson have brought Tiger fans together in good spirit.

SPORTS

The seventh grade football team was a small one, but they made up for their size with their hard work.

The seventh grade cheerleaders (top) cheered the seventh grade Tigers loyally, while the eighth grade cheerleaders gave great support to the eighth grade.

SPORTS

The freshman B cheerleaders showed great spirit for '76, and hockey players from Jackson participated on the Riley team.

The eighth grade football team played like real Tigers and look very promising as freshman players for next fall.

SPORTS

The freshman football team had a good season of 4 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie.

They will surely be an asset to Riley's Wildcats next fall.

The ninth grade cheerleaders did their part in helping the fans cheer the Tigers on to victory.

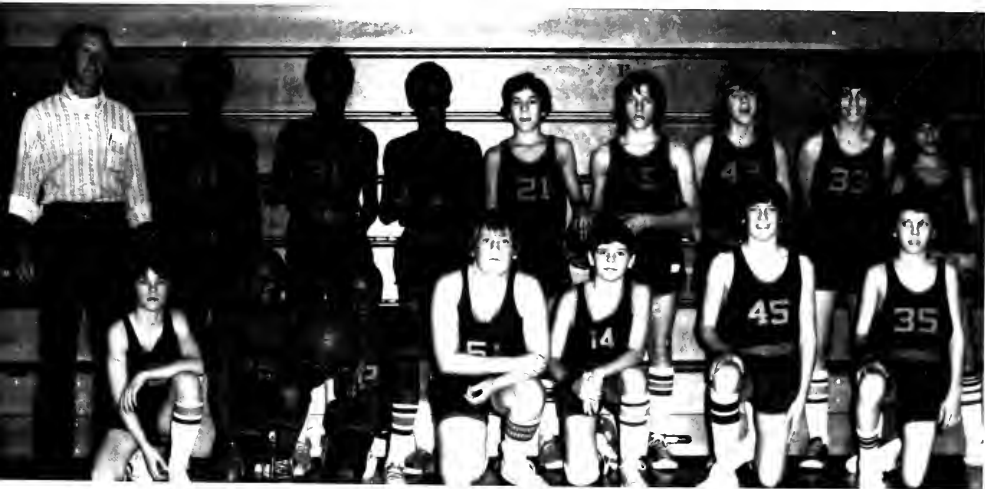

SPORTS

The seventh grade B team did a fine job this year. They spent many hours in serious practice.

Three freshmen played on Riley's tennis team. They played terrific tennis and certainly look very promising for next fall.

SPORTS

The girls' swim team did a great job as they swam with Riley's team. Jo Teumac went to state.

The seventh A basketball really moved this year.

In the city the ninth grade wrestling team finished second.

SPORTS

Skaters battle for the puck as the team watches the Riley-Marion game.

Mr. Steve Herczeg gives a few pointers during wrestling practice.

Eighth grade B basketball team worked hard on developing new techniques, skills, and game plans.

NINTH GRADE VOLLEYBALL TEAM

EIGHTH GRADE WRESTLERS

SPORTS

Seven ambitious and strong swimmers went out for Riley swim team.

The eighth grade A basketball team was really great. They competed in the "B" tournament.

The Girls' Sports Club has had a large turn-out of girls in every sport.

SPORTS

The ninth grade cheerleaders cheered their team against the "Fabulous Faculty" in a fantastic game.

Working hard does bring about improvement--and the seventh grade wrestlers proved that point.

FRIENDSHIP

From a small nation with small towns, America has grown to a large nation with huge cities. Large city schools such as ours (1,600 students) give us friends from many different neighborhoods and backgrounds. Greg Walker and his friend, Rosemary Harsh, stroll through the halls.

THANK YOU

The yearbook staff thanks all students who submitted photos and especially our fantastic publications photographer, Craig Landis. We also thank Mr. Paul Rairden and Mr. Dave Berta. Mr. Berta deserves special credit for the large "mirror" division pages, as well as group and candid photos.

1776-1976

In the spirit of 1776 we dedicate this volume to the freedom and independence fostered by our forefathers.

May the Stars and Stripes fly forever over the land of the free and the home of the brave-- America the beautiful.
